

KIBILIO COMMUNITY AND FARM

2022 Notable Impact Highlights

Overview

Kibilio Community and Farm is rooted in Black and Queer land sovereignty. It is an intergenerational, intentional community dedicated to embodied healing, and reparative, ecological, and reproductive justice. We in this BIPOC community invite you to be a part our journey of healing and healthy living so that we may cooperatively work toward educating for indigenous land justice and ecological balance.

Primary Stakeholders

The primary community positively impacted by the work of Kibilio are BIPOC, poor or working poor, healers, artists, community organizers and freedom fighters.

Democratic Governance

We operate as a collective utilizing consensus decision making and open participation in general membership meetings.

Procurement

We work to ensure our current supply chain is ethically aligned with our values in as far as racial justice, environmental justice, and workers rights.
