

NATIVE COMMUNITY CAPITAL 2022 Notable Impact Highlights

Overview

NCC advances tribal self-determination by working as a lender and as an honest broker for unlocking capital resources necessary to build tribal economies.

Founders

Primary Stakeholders

Native small business owners with 10 or fewer employees.

More often than not the customers/end users of our portfolio entities would be considered traditionally underserved.

Leaders

Challenging "Business as Usual"

At the executive level, moderately-heavily involved on policy topics with banks, regulators, federal agencies and investors/philanthropy.

Workforce

Ownership Structure

501(c)(3)

Borrowers

Social Impact

- Increased self determination and well being;
- Policy change and collective impact;
- Facilitating access to other sources of capital for established small businesses needing financial products larger than we can offer directly or independently.

Private investments are illiquid and are not subject to ongoing daily valuation. Accordingly, the actual realized returns on unrealized investments may differ materially from the statements on impact stated herein. Nothing contained in the document may be relied upon as a guarantee, promise, assurance or representation as to the future. There can be no assurance that any investment will be able to realize investments in a timely manner. Investments in impact-focused securities are speculative and involve significant risks, including the risk of loss of the entire investment. Such investment is only suitable for sophisticated investors and requires the financial ability and willingness to accept the high risks and the lack of liquidity inherent in such investment. Prospective investors must be prepared to bear such risks for an indefinite period of time. Past performance is not indicative of future performance.
